Calling All Young Artists! ???

"Metropolis Through Children's Eyes" International Youth Painting Contest

This is the chance for the children in your life to inspire the world with their creativity! We invite children aged 5 to 14 to participate in the "Metropolis Through Children's Eyes" International Youth Painting Contest.

Children are encouraged to share their vision of the future of cities through their artwork and propose imaginative solutions for city development. Selected participants will have their artwork and ideas shine at an international event, the 2023 Global Mayors' Forum in Guangzhou, China, December 7th to 9th this year. For more detailed information and to download the application form, please refer to the attached documents.

Your city's young artists are the future visionaries of urban development. Let their art inspire and create positive change in our cities. Your support is greatly appreciated.

All children should submit their artwork and the attached application form to mtce@guangzhouaward.org by November 25th, 2023.
