

NEWS

The exchange of good practices was the scope of the visit to Metropolis Secretariat General by representatives of the Metropolitan Area of the Aburrá Valley

A delegation of the AMVA (Metropolitan Area of the Aburrá Valley), ACI (Agency for Cooperation and Investment of Medellín and the Metropolitan Area) and a representative of UN-Habitat visited yesterday the Metropolis Secretariat General in Barcelona. Their goal is to build a community to share best practices with other metropolitan areas that provide feasible solutions to improve the organization and management of metropolitan areas. Secretary General, Alain Le Saux, offered the delegation to join the activities of Metropolis so as to share the experiences of its member cities.