The Government of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires was selected as the host for the third UCLG Culture Summit in 2019, which the World Council approved in Hangzhou. The Summit will take place from 3 to 5 April 2019, and is a global event and a meeting point of cities, local governments, national governments, civil society organizations and international organizations to discuss the current position of culture in the global agendas. It sends strong messages on the role of culture in development and provides remarkable international visibility to the host.

This Culture Summit will also host the debates of UCLG Policy Councils.
