

Launch of the Issue Paper on Gentrification

18 Jan. 2019

18 Jan. 2019

Date to be confirmed

The Metropolis Observatory collection of issue papers approaches a series of contemporary topics and challenges which local governments are facing in the area of metropolitan affairs. In this Issue Paper, we invite the economist and sociologist Josep Maria Pascual to discuss the complexity of gentrification in different metropolitan contexts, and to set out approaches to tackle the challenges it presents.
