As the 6th ever general Congress of UCLG's Middle Eastern and West Asian members, the meeting welcomed many mayors and other policymakers as well as academics, with a particular focus on Smart Cities and the use of new technology in cities. Finally, members met to discuss all the important administrative matters affecting the association.