

The 6th Maritime Silk Road International Tourism Festival:

31 Dec. 2020

31 Dec. 2020

Date to be confirmed

The Maritime Silk Road (Fuzhou)International Tourism Festival, sponsored by the Ministry of Culture and Tourism of China and Fujian Provincial People's Government and presented by Fujian Provincial Department of Culture and Tourism and Fuzhou Municipal People's Government, is an important action of Fujian Province and Fuzhou City to carry out the comprehensive building of the core region of the Marine Silk Road in the 21st Century. Inviting domestic and foreign tourism departments, tourism institutions and personages engaging in the tourism industry to participate the Festival has enhanced the exchanges and cooperation in this field. And it has successfully set up a new regional tourism cooperation platform for the external display, complementation and mutual benefit of the countries involved in the Maritime Silk Road, which has received high appraise and positive responses from the countries and regions in the tourism festival, and has become a grand tourism event with international influence.