

Cities for All · 11th Metropolis World Congress

06 Oct. 2014
Cities for All

The City of Hyderabad, host city of the 11th World Congress of METROPOLIS, presents the virtues of a democratic city - A City for All. It's rich culture, tradition, social equity, economic prosperity and demographic dividend makes it a reference among the future cities.

The vast experience, learning and challenges of the host city and urban India provides an excellent opportunity for the 11th World Congress of METROPOLIS to gather, engage, debate and share the global dialogue on urbanization with stakeholders of the cities around the world.