European Green India Summit

18 May. 2016
EUGIS'16

EUGIS, the European Green India Summit, is dedicated to the exchange and trade of ideas and services between India and Europe. This year it is focused on Smart Cities: Green Infrastructure and Regenerative Urban Development.

The European Green India Summit (EUGIS'16) will be opened by Liechtenstein Deputy Prime Minister Thomas Zwiefelhofer and Swiss Member of Parliament Claude Béglé. This joint initiative by the Liechtenstein Institute for Strategic Development and Panitek AG will form the second day of the "Namaste India — Second India Week in Liechtenstein" organized by India Club in Liechtenstein, under the patronage of Liechtenstein Foreign and Culture Minister Aurelia Frick and Indian ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein Smita Purushottam.
